Changing Methods of War in the Modern Age

Oct 9, 2022 / 5pm

The stunning success of the US military in Desert Storm seemed to validate the lessons we learned in Vietnam and the priorities which resulted, however; when we pulled our last forces from Afghanistan in 2021 we found that the world had changed. As the extent of Russia and China's ambitions emerge, it is becoming clear that America's traditional methods of warfighting and notions of weapons employment may be outmoded.

Our Speaker

Colonel (USA, Ret) John Antal. Colonel Antal has 30 years experience as an Armor and Cavalry officer and in his post-military career serves on the Army Science Board and has written and lectured extensively on the changing nature of warfare.
